

San Sebastián:

Surrounded by lush green mountains overlooking the Bay of Biscay and the Cantabrian Sea, the beautiful northern city of San Sebastián is located near the Pyrenees, one hour's drive to the Guggenheim Museum in Bilbao. The city is home to must-see monuments and breathtaking landscapes, ample leisure activities, and a superb cuisine. It is popular with film buffs, being home to the prestigious San Sebastian International Film Festival, while it is also considered a surfer's paradise!

LACUNZA SAN SEBASTIÁN

Net cost after scholarship: $ 2,205

Lacunza – International House (IH) San Sebastián is the most prestigious language school in San Sebastián and is attended by more than 1,000 students a year. The main objective of Lacunza – IH San Sebastián is to help students make the best use of their time to improve their Spanish communication skills. At the same time, it strives to make its students' experiences memorable. To this end, Lacunza – IH San Sebastián organizes cultural activities and visits to sites of interest in the Basque Country. The school also offers tutoring programs and maintains close contact with host families.

Sevilla:

Sevilla lies on the banks of the Guadalquivir River in southern Spain. It is a joyous city merging diverse cultures in a typically Mediterranean climate. Sevillians are famed for their open, friendly personality and sparkling wit. Sevilla's historic quarter is a World Heritage Site and its Holy Week and Feria de abril celebrations have been declared International Tourist Attractions. Sevilla has twice hosted World's Fairs, in 1929 and 1992.

CLIC SEVILLA

Net cost after scholarship: $ 2,175

CLIC IH Seville is one of the major and foremost language schools in Andalusia and the most important one in Sevilla. The school was founded in 1983 and is located in a refurbished Sevillian mansion in the historical, financial and commercial centre of the city of Sevilla. This high quality venue welcomes an average of 200 to 250 students from all over the world every month and offers a full programme and 8 levels all year round. CLIC is part of the worldwide organisation; International House. This association, present in more than 50 countries, guarantees the quality of methodology, equipment and services. The dynamic, motivated and highly qualified teaching staff has a wide experience (minimum 2 years) in teaching Spanish to young learners and adults and undergoes constant training aimed at updating their methods and materials. CLIC IH Seville has a proven experience in the teaching and coaching of groups of young American students. The language courses are complemented with a full leisure and cultural daily programme which reinforce the practice of language skills and contribute to the cultural and linguistic immersion of the students. The staff available at CLIC IH includes cultural coordinator as well as welfare coordinator in charge of ensuring comfort and security for all students.